

Oct 8 2009: Mothers Center Member Featured in LI Parent

In this month's Long Island Parent, Mothers' Center member, Gina Marie Dowling, shares with publisher Liza Burby how her Mothers' Center helped her gain access to the information and support she needed to raise her special needs child. The safe and nurturing environment she discovered at her Mothers' Center guided her to an invaluable support group for parents of special needs children. Now she helps other families at Parent to Parent of NYS, a statewide nonprofit organization that supports and connects families of individuals with special needs www.parenttoparentnys.org.
