

Privacy Policy

Privacy Policy and Disclaimer

The National Association of Mothers' Centers (NAMC) recognizes that an individual's personal information is a private matter. This privacy policy tells you how we handle the information we learn from you when you visit our Website, register for an event, sign up to receive eNews or click on the Websites of our member organizations.

Privacy Policy:

We will never share, sell, or rent individual personal information with anyone without your advance permission or unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to employees managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you emails based on your request for information and to service providers for purposes of providing services relating to our communications with you. Other than contact information no other personal information is gathered or maintained by us. We use security measures to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of data used by any of our systems.

Disclaimer:

Information presented through the National Association of Mothers' Centers (NAMC) Website and the Websites of its member organizations are provided and intended for general information only, and should not be taken as legal advice, medical advice, diagnosis, or instruction.

You assume full responsibility for using the information and you understand and agree that the National Association of Mothers' Centers (NAMC) and its member organizations are not responsible or liable for any claim, loss, or damage resulting from its use by you or any user. Although significant efforts are made to keep the information on our Website updated and accurate, we disclaim any warranty regarding its currency or accuracy.

Note:

By using this Website, you agree to accept these policies. These policies may be changed, as needed, so please read this section regularly and carefully.